An Advent Prayer

By Henri J.M. Nouwen

Lord Jesus, Master of both the light and the darkness, send your Holy Spirit upon our preparations for Christmas. We who have so much to do seek quiet spaces to hear your voice each day. We who are anxious over many things look forward to your coming among us. We who are blessed in so many ways long for the complete joy of your kingdom. We whose hearts are heavy seek the joy of your presence. We are your people, walking in darkness, yet seeking the light. To you we say, "Come Lord Jesus!" Amen.

As we enter this festive and holy season with the beauty and pageantry of our worship, the diversity of activities, the fellowship of family days and holiday celebrations...

Consider who you can, and will, invite to join us at some time this Advent and Christmas season.

We cannot forget, nor overlook, the significance and power of an invitation. An invitation immediately says that we have something good to share with someone we think of well.

Who needs your invitation this season?

Preparation is a poignant theme of the Advent season. We prepare ourselves to receive God among us in Jesus Christ.

Preparations are underway for so much that our Parish shares this month through the Adventide and Christmastide.

Christmas only initiates the ways we are prepared for God's grace given in Jesus. Likewise, this Christmas brings preparations for 2015 and the 150th anniversary of our Parish.

Prepare yourselves for great celebrations to come as we witness God among us, in Christ's Nativity and the life of this Parish as the Body of Christ in the World.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY KING DAVID

In the coming months, as we prepare for the arrival of "great David's greater Son" and celebrate his coming among us, St. Paul's Bible Study will embark on a journey into the great epic of the Bible: the story of David - shepherd, child soldier, poet, warrior, gangster, lover, king, and sinner. We will bear witness to the exploits of giants, wise women, generals, footsoldiers, prophets and priests. David's life encompasses soaring joy at impossible victories, and inconsolable mourning at the most dire tragedies. There is no figure in the Hebrew Bible more vividly drawn than David.

Join us for the whole series, or just drop in when you can! Don't worry, we'll begin every session with a review of "the story so far..."

Stewardship as Recycling our Blessings

You should rather open your hand, willingly lending enough to meet the need, whatever it may be. (Deuteronomy 15:8)

What do Oprah Winfrey and Bill Gates have in common? Both have wanted to give back what they had been given. Isn't that the way with all of us of faith? Happily, many of the blessings we receive can be passed on. One way to do this is to pledge a portion of your income regularly to St. Paul's to help further God's purposes here on Earth.

SHARING MY

blessings

Your pledge and stewardship goes a long way to reaching out to others who might be impoverished in spirit, health, or material means.
